

Educational Alliance Program

Strayer University's goal in working with organizations is to deliver a high quality education in a cost-effective manner, ensuring that your institutional education dollars are well and wisely spent. If your company is not a Corporate Partner, please provide this flyer to your Human Resources Department.

BENEFITS OF OUR ALLIANCE PROGRAM

- REDUCED TUITION: A stated percentage off current tuition price, extended by the University, will be granted to employees upon proof of employment. Such proof may be a recent letter on company letterhead, a company e-mail with employee's address, or a paystub
- WAIVED FEES: Waived Experiential Learning Portfolio Fees.
- CREDIT FOR INTERNAL TRAINING AND WORK/LIFE EXPERIENCE: We will evaluate your internal training programs and your employees' work/life experience to determine if undergraduate or graduate level credit could be granted.
- CUSTOMIZED CURRICULUM/PROGRAMS: Should the need arise, we will work with you to assess your education needs and develop customized curriculum and or programs to address those needs if desired.
- CUSTOMIZED MICROSITE: We will develop a customized website for your employees that will include all the benefits of the alliance.
- INSTRUCTOR SUPPORT: Our faculty's wealth of experience and industry expertise can provide supplemental support for your training initiatives. As appropriate, an applicable topic of interest may be presented by one of our faculty members, providing context to your company's business objective.
- EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES: Collateral will be provided for your Human Resources team to present to employees inquiring about Strayer University and furthering their education.
- COMMUNICATION SUPPORT: Partnership and applicable University benefits will be provided for employee communication.
- DETAILED REPORTING: We will provide you with quarterly reports to keep you abreast of any trends or of employees attending Strayer University

Freedom to Choose – On-site, online and on campus

Strayer University's popular online classes allow students to complete their entire degree, or just take a few classes, via the Internet. Classes at our convenient campus locations are offered in the evenings, on weekends and during the day.
