

STRAYER

FELLOWS SCHOLARSHIP

Grow as a community leader with a full scholarship

We're proud to offer Strayer University's Brian Jones Fellows Scholarship to help students build talent and leadership skills they can use to solve the problems we face in our society today.

Successful applicants will receive a full-tuition scholarship applicable to select bachelor's degree in accounting, business administration, criminal justice and information technology or any Strayer University master's degree (excluding the Jack Welch Management Institute).

Newly admitted first-time bachelor's and master's students are eligible for this scholarship. A student may not receive a second Fellows scholarship at any degree level.

Selection criteria include previous work or interest in improving the applicant's surrounding community.

Scholarship recipients will join others in this program to share their experiences, discuss current social and economic issues and create positive action through professional development.

As a Strayer Fellow, you'll

- Receive invitations to networking events with Strayer University leadership, community leaders and other members of the Brian Jones Fellows Scholarship
- Conduct a research project in collaboration with a Strayer faculty advisor
- Have access to professional coaching and development opportunities and peer-to-peer engagement
