AT STRAYER UNIVERSITY

Grads to Work Video Transcript

What if there was a program that helped your organization attract, train and retain talent?

Introducing, Grads to Work.

Step one: We discover your workforce needs and identify promising young adults to fill your entry level roles.

Step two: Participants complete our workforce readiness course, preparing them for success in the workplace. Then you decide who to hire.

and

Step three: We align our tuition to your tuition assistance benefit, providing Grads to Work hires a no-cost pathway to a Strayer University associate degree.

If you share our vision of a more equitable workforce, let's build it together.
